

What can I be when I grow up?

Early strategies to promote employment inclusion

Free virtual workshop for parents & caregivers of youth with disabilities

Facilitated by Holland Bloorview & Ontario Disability Employment Network

Did you know that your expectations and your child's participation in home and community activities can affect their future employment opportunities? Join us to discuss and explore:

- ✓ Having high expectations – why does it matter?
- ✓ How responsibilities/chores at home and extra-curricular activities can build skills and attitudes for future work
- ✓ Myth-busting (Yes – many youth with disabilities work! Employers value diverse workforces)
- ✓ Programs and services that promote participation

This workshop is geared for families with children/youth aged 5-15 (youth not yet job searching)

When

Time Options

Wednesday December 2, 2020	11:30AM-12:30PM OR
	7:30-8:30PM

Where

Via Zoom (link will be sent to registrants)

Facilitators

Payal Khazanchi, parent & Family as Faculty with Holland Bloorview
Ingrid Muschta P.Eng, Diversity & Inclusion Specialist, Ontario Disability Employment Network
Laura Howson-Strong or Carolyn McDougall, Occupational Therapists, Transitions Strategy, Holland Bloorview

To register & questions

Laura Howson-Strong, OT howsonstrong@hollandbloorview.ca

Holland Bloorview is a member of the Ontario Disability Employment Network (ODEN). This workshop was developed in collaboration with ODEN and parents. It is offered as part of Holland Bloorview's Transition Strategy.

Holland Bloorview Kids Rehabilitation Hospital

150 Kilgour Road, Toronto ON Canada M4G 1R8 T 416 425 6220 T 800 363 2440 F 416 425 6591 hollandbloorview.ca

A teaching hospital fully affiliated with the University of Toronto.