

ECHO Ontario Autism Summer Pop-Up Series 2021

Below is the schedule for the 2021 ECHO Autism Summer Pop-Up series. The theme for this year's summer's series is "From Research to Practice". Presentations from leading researchers in the field will include the latest updates along with practical applications for now and in the future. Once you are registered, you may attend any of the pop-up sessions listed below. Reminders and log-in information will be sent before each session. MOC credits will be given for physicians.

What is a Learning Health Network and Why Do I Care?

June 16, 2021 12:00noon-1:30pm

Dr. Melanie Penner-Developmental Paediatrician and Clinician Investigator

Thinking Beyond Diagnostic Labels: Research Updates

June 29, 2021 12:30pm-2:00pm

Dr. Evdokia Anagnostou-Child Neurologist and Senior Clinician Scientist

From Smart Watches to Virtual Reality: How Technology can Support Kids

July 13 2021 12 noon-1:30pm

Dr. Azadeh Kushki-Engineer and Senior Scientist

Social ABCs: Early Intervention from Research to Practice

July 27, 2021 12:00 noon-1:30pm

Dr. Jessica Brian- Psychologist and Clinician-Investigator

Autism Diagnosis and Genetics Testing

August 11, 2021 12:00 noon-1:30pm

Dr. Iskra Peltekova-Developmental Paediatrician

Autism in Girls: What is Different?

August 25, 2021 noon-1:30pm

Dr Meng-Chuan Lai-Clinician Scientist

This series is fully funded by the Ontario Ministry of Health

TO REGISTER <https://redcap.link/ECHOSummer2021PopupSeriesRegistration>

Holland Bloorview
Kids Rehabilitation Hospital