Project SEARCH Toronto is a unique transition to work program for students with disabilities.

Students participate in classroom workplace life skills education and complete three cooperative learning placements at UHN Toronto Rehab and Holland Bloorview Kids Rehabilitation Hospital.

Each student’s support team includes their family, a qualified teacher, job coaches, worksite supervisors and co-workers, and an employment support counsellor.

Eligible students:

- Are at least 18 years old
- Are entering their final year of high school in the 2022/23 school year
- Have a primary identification of an intellectual or developmental disability on their IEP
- Are motivated to work full time or part-time 20 hours a week or more after finishing high school
- Are able to communicate in a workplace setting

Project SEARCH is an international success. In a typical year, 75% of graduates are competitively employed within one year of completing the program.
