Are you a youth or young adult with a disability?

Consider participating in a study evaluating a toolkit that was co-developed with youth focusing on disability disclosure and workplace accommodations.

What is this study about?

We want youth input in evaluating a toolkit that focuses on workplace disability disclosure and accommodations.

Who can participate?

We are looking for:

- Youth with a disability, aged 15-29
- Able to read/write in English
- Are currently employed, enrolled in training, or seeking employment
- Willingness to be audio recorded

What's involved?

- A focus group via zoom (approx. 2 hours) and/or
- A survey (approx. 30 minutes)

Potential Benefits?

- There are no direct benefits of participating, but it may help us to learn about how our intervention influences youth's understanding of workplace disability disclosure and accommodations.

Participants will receive a small token of appreciation to thank them for their time.
