

Celebrating Emancipation Day at Holland Bloorview

August 1st is Emancipation Day. It's a time to celebrate the Black diaspora at Holland Bloorview! We are excited to reaffirm our commitment to diversity and inclusion through our Black staff drop-in social, and educational tipsheets on Emancipation Day and Caribana.

July 30

Event: Black staff social (light refreshments offered, please feel free to bring your lunch)

Time: 12.30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Where: Room 0W220

*Virtual option available. Join the meeting now Meeting ID: 276 062 327 465
Passcode: vXwBtY*

This hybrid drop-in event is for self-identified Black staff and students who are interested in connecting with Black colleagues across the organization, or those who would like to be allies. For questions about the event, please e-mail Lorraine Thomas, Sophia Okyere-Oduro or Dr. De-Lawrence Lamptey.

For more information on Emancipation Day and Caribana and their importance to the Black diaspora, please check out the following tipsheets.

Emancipation Day August 1, 2024

Toronto Caribbean Carnival is a Celebration of Emancipation

Holland Bloorview

Kids Rehabilitation Hospital